COLLECTIONS ACCESS FOR THE PURPOSE OF RESEARCH

It is the policy of the Landis Valley Village and Farm Museum to make the collections in its care accessible for scholarly research or examination. Access for research or examination may be limited by policy, space and staff availability, or care and security of the collections.

Permission is granted for general research purpose only. No permission is granted either expressly or implicitly for reproduction of objects or publication of objects in the Museum's collection. Requests for image reproductions for any reason other than personal use require separate consideration and are subject to other policies available upon request. Requests for reproduction or publication uses should be directed in writing to the Museum Curators at Landis Valley Village and Farm Museum.
